To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Tasha W. DOB: 1997-05-02

I am writing at the request of my patient, Ms. W., who is in treatment for major depressive disorder, recurrent, severe, and post-traumatic stress disorder. She had a psychiatric hospitalization in June 2026 and attends weekly therapy.
In my clinical opinion her symptoms currently prevent her from maintaining employment or a regular schedule of 80 hours per month.

Sincerely,

Marcus Lee
